

DALLAS FINALLY TRIMS THE GIANTS

With Line-Up Disarranged Donlin's Nine Is Shut Out.

EVEN MATTY FAILS TO TERRIFY TEXANS

Bescher Lame and Murray Ill—Amateur Plays Right Field with Weir Results.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)
Dallas, Tex., March 11.—Badly crippled by the absence of Bob Bescher and Jack Murray from the outfield, forced to play catchers at first base, and with a Dallas amateur in right field, the Giants, who appeared here today under the management of Mike Donlin, were victims of batting and fielding weakness, and fell easy prey to the Dallas team. With bristly Mathewson pitching part of the game, the big leaguers were not only defeated, but were shut out by a score of 1 to 0.

In the seven years that the Giants have trained in Texas this is the first time any nine representing McGraw has ever been beaten in Dallas. In a series showing for Dallas consisted of three games against the Giants. A crowd of 2,000 fans enjoyed the novel sight of seeing Mathewson losing a game in Texas for the first time.

The team that Donlin brought here today is the same that lost two practice games in Marlin this week, and even at its best might not have won. There were no capable substitutes available when Murray and Bescher failed Donlin, and the line-up was shot to pieces.

Bescher is out of commission with a lame ankle. He could scarcely walk last night and today he was a helpless cripple. Murray was confined to his room all day with a fever that required the attention of a physician.

To complete his outfield Donlin was forced to go to center himself and leave first base to the tender mercy of Catcher Cotter and McLean. Right field was entrusted to Cochran, a Dallas amateur, who played host to Mathewson on the golf links here this morning.

Cochran proved himself a fine golf player, both on the links and in the baseball game. Apparently he had not caught a ball or missed a bat this season. He was able to do nothing at bat and made a mess of his five fielding chances, one of which cost New York three runs.

Smith, a tall and extremely well left-handed, held the Giants safe for five innings, though he issued five passes in the first three innings. Hueneke, the second Dallas pitcher, hit two men in one inning, but the Giants were so pitifully weak at bat they could not take advantage of these openings.

In the nine innings they made just two hits—a single by McLean, with two out, in the fourth, and a scratch infield hit by Burns in the eighth. Nearly all of their chances to score came after two outs, when no pinch hits were forthcoming.

The Dallas team put up a brilliant defense, especially in the infield. Only five balls were hit to the outfield by the Giants. In every department of play the locals looked like big leaguers and the Giants looked like "bushers." They even worked the hidden ball trick on Donlin.

The Texans beat Matty and won the game in the first inning, when Storch tripled and scored McCarthy. The score was 1 to 0 when both sides changed pitchers. Harber opened the seventh with an infield hit. Menefee popped to Schupp and Hueneke fanned. Then Wilson raised a fly that should have retired the side, but Storch made a horrible muff, and Jordan followed by an attack on New York's most vulnerable spot.

Cochran attempted to scoop the Dallas manager's line to right and missed it altogether, everybody on the plate, but might have been caught at the plate, but Grant dropped Cochran's relay, and the scorers then decided to help out local talent by giving Jordan a home run and absolving Cochran from an error.

A faint hope was raised when Burns beat out a drive to short as a starter in the eighth. He was forced by Donlin, however, Jordan retained the ball, and when Donlin stepped off first base he was caught. Demaree and Schauer will be the pitchers to-morrow.

The score follows:
DALLAS: Burns, 1; Hueneke, 2; Storch, 3; McCarthy, 4; Wilson, 5; Schupp, 6; Jordan, 7; Harber, 8; Smith, 9. Total, 10.
GIANTS: Mathewson, 1; Hueneke, 2; Storch, 3; McCarthy, 4; Wilson, 5; Schupp, 6; Jordan, 7; Harber, 8; Smith, 9. Total, 1.

RULES ON UMPIRE RESERVE

National Commission Says Big Leagues May Choose.

(Cincinnati, O., March 14.—) Holding that the reservation of umpires by minor league ball leagues is an internal affair of the National Association and is not effective as regards the major leagues, the National Commission to-day recommended that the umpires George H. Johnson and A. J. Cleary, of the New York State League, be permitted to advance to a higher league, for a consideration to be agreed upon by the president of the New York State League and the president of the league desiring their services.

In case these parties cannot agree, the chairman of the commission agrees to act as arbitrator.

The two umpires contended that as a result of the reservation by the New York State League for 1914 they were unable to accept offers from leagues of higher classification at higher salaries.

Bay Ridge Gunners Out.

Trap shooting was resumed at the Bay Ridge traps of the Crescent Athletic Club yesterday, with four runners taking part in the usual weekly fixtures. The principal winner was George Bingham, who won the take-home trophy, scored a leg on the president's cup and annexed the sun-below-the-elm match.

The statue trophy was won by L. F. Massie. He also captured a trophy shoot, George Brower won the other trophy shoot.

MAN WHO MAY PLAY KEYSTONE SACK FOR THE YANKEES, AND DARING SLIDE AT TRAINING CAMP

LUTE BOONE. Who is working hard to earn a place on the team.

Seitz sliding home, with Reynolds blocking him off, in lively practice game.

GALVESTON TAKES FALL OUT OF YANKS

Chance's Men Do Some Top Fielding, but Go Shy on Stick Work.

COLE'S WILD PITCH GIVES Foe THE JUMP

Luck Breaks Against Warhop in Last Two Innings and Texans Nose Out Ahead.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)
Galveston, Tex., March 11.—Galveston defeated Frank Chance's regulars in a hard fought game here today, by a score of 2 to 1.

The fielding of the Yankees was a decided improvement over most of their previous performances, but the batting was far too light to satisfy the Pease's Leader.

The men from Gotham might have won except for the carelessness of "King" Cole, whose wild pitch let in the first run, and whose failure to go from first to third on a prettily executed hit and run play with Maisel cost at least another run.

Luck broke badly for Warhop, who pitched the last two innings. The first man to face him tripled and scored the winning run on a long fly. Jack opened the eighth with a clout to the scoreboard, and "Iron Man," came right back to the Yankees with a sensational throw that cut down Warhop at second.

Each side got a run in the first inning, and New York was quite fortunate in holding the enemy. Had there been two umpires on the job Reynolds could never have got away with a quick recovery after dropping Maisel's throw to the pan, on which a base runner was called out.

Had the umpire been in a position to see properly Galveston might have bunched the "King" for a cluster of runs.

There was some bad baseball pulled by the Chancemen in this section, Cole aiding the foe to its run with a wild pitch in the pinch. Sentel, of the local team, and Baerwald, a Yankee recruit in 1908, singled with two down. Peck fumbled, Tarlton filling the cushions. Hueneke uncovered a wild pitch, letting in the tying run. It was on Massey's grounder that Maisel whipped to Reynolds, but despite the fumble Baerwald was declared out. Then Channell went away back to the right corner for a beautiful catch that took an apparently sure triple off Frierson.

The Yankees' run in the first was due to Maisel and Walsh. Fritz led off with a clean single and a steal. An out advanced him and Walsh's blow brought him home. Holden failed to connect with the ball on the hit and run and Walsh was pegged out at second.

The score follows:
DALLAS: Burns, 1; Hueneke, 2; Storch, 3; McCarthy, 4; Wilson, 5; Schupp, 6; Jordan, 7; Harber, 8; Smith, 9. Total, 10.
GIANTS: Mathewson, 1; Hueneke, 2; Storch, 3; McCarthy, 4; Wilson, 5; Schupp, 6; Jordan, 7; Harber, 8; Smith, 9. Total, 1.

M'GRAW'S TEAM A WINNER

Cuban Pitcher Makes a Hit with Well Controlled Slow Curve.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)
Waco, Tex., March 14.—The Waco division of the Giants beat the Waco Texas leaguers this afternoon by a score of 7 to 2. Manager McGraw accompanied this consignment of players from Marlin, and nominated two southpaws, Marquard and Palmero, to do the pitching. Both pitched very good ball.

The "Rube" opened and went through the first five innings breezing, holding Waco to one hit and no runs. Palmero was hit harder, but kept the jabs scattered. He showed great fondness for his slow curve, which he controlled splendidly. The Waco men wasted a lot of energy reaching for it in vain, and the Cuban hooked the first one over for a strike every time.

Johnson, of Waco, pitched one inning, and during that time gave six bases on balls, made two wild pitches and one wild throw. He has speed, but poor control. But for his wildness the game would have been closer.

NEW YORK: ab r h po a e
Snodgrass, 3b, 4 1 0 0 0 0
Eitz, 1b, 3 1 0 0 0 0
Thompson, 2b, 3 1 1 0 0 0
Doyle, 3b, 4 0 2 1 0 0
Ritter, 1b, 3 1 0 0 1 1
Merrill, 3b, 3 0 0 1 0 0
Jordan, 1b, 2 1 1 0 0 0
Harmon, 2b, 3 0 0 1 0 0
Meyers, 3b, 2 1 1 0 0 0
E. Johnson, 4 0 0 0 0 0
Marquard, 1b, 1 0 0 0 0 0
Palmero, 2b, 2 0 0 0 0 0
Totals, 33 7 7 10 2

WACO: ab r h po a e
Clemens, cf, 4 0 0 0 0 0
Yardley, lf, 4 1 0 0 0 0
Tanner, 2b, 3 1 0 0 0 0
M. Quinn, 3b, 4 0 2 1 0 0
Wheeler, 1b, 3 0 0 1 0 0
Riley, 2b, 3 0 0 1 0 0
Grubb, 3b, 2 0 1 0 0 0
Green, 1b, 2 0 0 0 0 0
Carson, 2b, 1 0 0 0 0 0
Johnson, 3b, 0 0 0 0 0 0
Just, p, 1 0 0 0 0 0
Totals, 33 2 2 10 2

*Batted for Riley in the ninth inning.
*Batted for Green in the third inning.

New York..... 1 0 0 0 0 0 1-7
Waco..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-2
Waco won on errors—New York, 1; Waco, 2.
First base on error—New York, 1; Waco, 2.
First base on error—New York, 1; Waco, 2.
First base on error—New York, 1; Waco, 2.
First base on error—New York, 1; Waco, 2.

Left on bases—New York, 11; Waco, 6.

First base on error—New York, 1; Waco, 2.
First base on error—New York, 1; Waco, 2.
First base on error—New York, 1; Waco, 2.
First base on error—New York, 1; Waco, 2.

HOME BOXERS IN DEFEAT

Kothe Only Local Boy to Win in Amateur Tourney.

Boxers representing this city captured only one bout of the three inter-city matches which were held in conjunction with the amateur boxing tournament held at the New York Athletic Club last night. The only local victor was Ernest Kothe, of the St. Bartholomew Athletic Club, the metropolitan champion of the 125-pound class, who beat Frank Gallagher, of the Riverside Athletic Club, of Toronto.

William Smith, of the Bronx Church House, survived the final in the 135-pound class, but was defeated by Joseph Toetel, another Riverside boy. Frank Shanley and Sam Diamond, two local boxers in the 160-pound class, were beaten after hard fighting, which did not please the crowd. Boxers from this city, Philadelphia and Toronto took part in the tourney.

The summaries follow:

OPEN TOURNAMENT.
110-pound class (semi-finals): first bout—Charles Gillman, Mott Haven A. C., defeated Jack Levy, unattached, three rounds, judges' decision. Second bout—Thomas McGrath, Oram Association, defeated J. Malone, Protective League, three rounds, judges' decision. Final bout—Charles Gillman defeated Thomas McGrath, extra round, judges' decision.
125-pound class (semi-finals): first bout—James Hillman, Senior Protective League, stopped by referee in one round. Second bout—Joe Smith, New Polo A. C., three rounds, referee's decision. Final bout—James Hillman defeated Joe Smith, three rounds, referee's decision.

Poly Prep Fencers Lose.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)
Cornwall-on-Hudson, N. Y., March 14.—The fencing team of the New York Military Academy defeated Poly Prep here today by a score of 6 to 3.

Water Polo Season Best in History of the Sport

Faster Game Brought About By the New Code and Rough Tactics Banished.

The college water polo scenes, recently closed, was from every point of view the most successful in history. More and better candidates than ever before reported for the "various squads, most of the games were close and hard fought and the play was clean and brilliant throughout the championship tournament.

The graduate advisory committee of the Intercollegiate Swimming Association is to be congratulated on its excellent work in revising the rules and in bringing about the appointment of strict and competent officials.

A wealth of sterling material came to light in the battle for honors, and two men at least—Hessenbruck, the Princeton center, and Braden, the Yale goaltender—proved as powerful all-around players as the colleges have turned out.

Several of the leading officials and coaches have already picked the season's all-college sextet, but none has sought the opinion of the players themselves, who are often better judges of the true worth of their mates and rivals.

The Tribune has collected the views of the captains of the four best teams, and from them the following vote results:

For forwards—Steiner, Yale, 3; Van Holt, Princeton, 3; Shryock and Marcy, Pennsylvania, 2; Selby and Ill, Princeton, 1 each.

For backs—Braden, Yale, 3; Van Holt, Yale, 2; Marcy and Shryock, Pennsylvania, 2; Smith, Yale, and Mase, Moulton and Garden, Columbia, 1 apiece.

The captains were all too modest to vote for themselves, but two of them secure positions, anyhow, and the ballot shows Hessenbruck, Steiner, Marcy, Shryock, Van Holt and Braden in the van. Marcy and Shryock both have two votes for forward and one for back, but the former did more scoring, so it seems logical to place him on the line of attack.

Here, then, is the choice of the majority:

ALL COLLEGE POSITION. RESERVE.
Hessenbruck, Princeton, G. Selby, Princeton
Steiner, Yale, G. Ill, Princeton
Marcy, Pennsylvania, P. Moulton, Columbia
Van Holt, Yale, B. Butler, Princeton
Shryock, Pennsylvania, H. Mase, Columbia
Braden, Yale, G. Smith, Yale

SUPERBAS WIND UP WEEK OF HARD WORK

In Nine-Inning Game Two of the Recruits Show to Advantage.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)
Augusta, Ga., March 14.—Three work-out were indulged in by the Superbas today. The morning was spent in perfecting the different plays that come up in a big league game, and this afternoon a rattling nine-inning game was played, the regulars defeating the second team by a score of 5 to 2.

Not a man reached first on Pennington, the Brooklyn semi-pro. The other five pitchers took things comparatively easy most of the time, just lobbing up the ball.

"Buck" Wheat had a field day at the bat for the regulars, beating out two infield hits and slugging out a long single to center. Joe Rigger, the leading long-distance hitter in the American Association last year, and the best looking prospect in the squad, was just behind Zach with a double and a single.

With the score 2 to 2 in the sixth inning, Wheat and Miller singled and Casey Stengel followed up with a double. This was followed up in the eighth inning with another tally.

"Kid" Elberfeld, who is acting in the capacity of coach, was at his best, and it would not be surprising if he was called upon during the championship season to fill in at his old position in case of an accident. In addition to this the Tennessee is a clever second sacker.

Captain Jake Daubert was out of the line-up of the regulars this afternoon on account of a slight injury to one of his legs yesterday in running from first to second.

To-morrow will be one of absolute rest. Manager Wilbert Robinson figuring that the players have had five days of hard work out of the last six.

MISS RAVENSCROFT LOSES

Mrs. Barlow Wins Play-off of Pinehurst Golf Tie.

Pinehurst, N. C., March 14.—Miss Gladys Ravenscroft, of England, holder of the American woman's golf championship, met defeat to-day at the hands of Mrs. R. N. Barlow, former Eastern champion, in the play-off of a recent tie in an invitation elimination contest under the auspices of the Silver Fells.

Aided by a handicap of five strokes, Mrs. Barlow won on the seventeenth green.

Four-ball play, under the Tin Whistlers' auspices, resulted in a victory for Ed McCabe, Brooklyn, and R. C. Blanche, Essex Falls, with a score of 60. Parker W. Whittemore, of Brookline, and Irving S. Robeson, Rochester, were second, with a score of 65.

Whittemore made an amateur record of 20 for the No. 2 course here.

Water Polo Season Best in History of the Sport

Faster Game Brought About By the New Code and Rough Tactics Banished.

The college water polo scenes, recently closed, was from every point of view the most successful in history. More and better candidates than ever before reported for the "various squads, most of the games were close and hard fought and the play was clean and brilliant throughout the championship tournament.

The graduate advisory committee of the Intercollegiate Swimming Association is to be congratulated on its excellent work in revising the rules and in bringing about the appointment of strict and competent officials.

A wealth of sterling material came to light in the battle for honors, and two men at least—Hessenbruck, the Princeton center, and Braden, the Yale goaltender—proved as powerful all-around players as the colleges have turned out.

Several of the leading officials and coaches have already picked the season's all-college sextet, but none has sought the opinion of the players themselves, who are often better judges of the true worth of their mates and rivals.

The Tribune has collected the views of the captains of the four best teams, and from them the following vote results:

For forwards—Steiner, Yale, 3; Van Holt, Princeton, 3; Shryock and Marcy, Pennsylvania, 2; Selby and Ill, Princeton, 1 each.

For backs—Braden, Yale, 3; Van Holt, Yale, 2; Marcy and Shryock, Pennsylvania, 2; Smith, Yale, and Mase, Moulton and Garden, Columbia, 1 apiece.

The captains were all too modest to vote for themselves, but two of them secure positions, anyhow, and the ballot shows Hessenbruck, Steiner, Marcy, Shryock, Van Holt and Braden in the van. Marcy and Shryock both have two votes for forward and one for back, but the former did more scoring, so it seems logical to place him on the line of attack.

Here, then, is the choice of the majority:

ALL COLLEGE POSITION. RESERVE.
Hessenbruck, Princeton, G. Selby, Princeton
Steiner, Yale, G. Ill, Princeton
Marcy, Pennsylvania, P. Moulton, Columbia
Van Holt, Yale, B. Butler, Princeton
Shryock, Pennsylvania, H. Mase, Columbia
Braden, Yale, G. Smith, Yale

SUPERBAS WIND UP WEEK OF HARD WORK

In Nine-Inning Game Two of the Recruits Show to Advantage.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)
Augusta, Ga., March 14.—Three work-out were indulged in by the Superbas today. The morning was spent in perfecting the different plays that come up in a big league game, and this afternoon a rattling nine-inning game was played, the regulars defeating the second team by a score of 5 to 2.

Not a man reached first on Pennington, the Brooklyn semi-pro. The other five pitchers took things comparatively easy most of the time, just lobbing up the ball.

"Buck" Wheat had a field day at the bat for the regulars, beating out two infield hits and slugging out a long single to center. Joe Rigger, the leading long-distance hitter in the American Association last year, and the best looking prospect in the squad, was just behind Zach with a double and a single.

With the score 2 to 2 in the sixth inning, Wheat and Miller singled and Casey Stengel followed up with a double. This was followed up in the eighth inning with another tally.

"Kid" Elberfeld, who is acting in the capacity of coach, was at his best, and it would not be surprising if he was called upon during the championship season to fill in at his old position in case of an accident. In addition to this the Tennessee is a clever second sacker.

Captain Jake Daubert was out of the line-up of the regulars this afternoon on account of a slight injury to one of his legs yesterday in running from first to second.

To-morrow will be one of absolute rest. Manager Wilbert Robinson figuring that the players have had five days of hard work out of the last six.

MISS RAVENSCROFT LOSES

Mrs. Barlow Wins Play-off of Pinehurst Golf Tie.

Pinehurst, N. C., March 14.—Miss Gladys Ravenscroft, of England, holder of the American woman's golf championship, met defeat to-day at the hands of Mrs. R. N. Barlow, former Eastern champion, in the play-off of a recent tie in an invitation elimination contest under the auspices of the Silver Fells.

Aided by a handicap of five strokes, Mrs. Barlow won on the seventeenth green.

Four-ball play, under the Tin Whistlers' auspices, resulted in a victory for Ed McCabe, Brooklyn, and R. C. Blanche, Essex Falls, with a score of 60. Parker W. Whittemore, of Brookline, and Irving S. Robeson, Rochester, were second, with a score of 65.

Whittemore made an amateur record of 20 for the No. 2 course here.

Matty's Long Shut-out List

Year.	Shut-outs	Runs	Hits	Errors	Fielding	Base	Outs	Runs	Hits	Errors	Fielding	Base	Outs
1901	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1902	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1903	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1904	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1905	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1906	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1907	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1908	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1909	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1910	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1911	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1912	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
1913	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1	1
Totals	14	13	12	9	8	8	8	8	8	8	8	8	8

NEWARK NINE PROMISING

First Base Only Problem Facing the Team.

Encouraging reports are received from the Newark International League team, in training at Columbus, Ga. The players have been here three weeks.

They pull stakes next Wednesday, starting on a tour of exhibition games through the South preparatory to returning home on April 2.

The only drawback is for a first baseman to fill the shoes of Harry Swacha, who jumped to the Federal.

It is believed that John Hummel, the Brooklyn utility infielder, will be sent over to Newark to cover the bag. Mike Heckinger, the catcher, is also a probability for Newark. Both he and Hummel are spoken of in a trade to Newark for Billy Zimmerman, the Indians' left fielder, who is wanted by Brooklyn.

PRINCETON WINS ON MAT

Columbia Team Makes a Poor Showing in Meet.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)
Princeton, N. J., March 14.—The Princeton wrestling team easily defeated Columbia University's representatives on the mat in the dual meet held here tonight. The Tigers piled up the tidy little total of 25 points, while the New York lads had to be content with 6.

Cohen, of Columbia, won the only bout of the night for his team, gaining the decision over Culloias in the fourth weight division after nine minutes of work. Berger, of the Blue and White, held Frantz to a draw in the welterweight class after twelve minutes of uninteresting work.

The best bout of the night, so far as speedy, aggressive work was concerned, was that between Tancock and Sadler. The former won with a half-nelson and body hold in 2:15. Captain Gile, of Princeton, won his bout with Montgomery with a farther-nelson hold in 4:10.

The summaries follow:
115-pound class—Van Buren, of Princeton, threw McCracken, of Columbia, with a neck and body hold in 8 minutes and 50 seconds.
140-pound class—Cohen, of Columbia, won a decision over Culloias, of Princeton, in 5 minutes.

160-pound class—Tancock, of Princeton, threw Sadler, of Columbia, with a half-nelson and body hold in 8 minutes and 50 seconds.
180-pound class—Frantz, of Princeton, and Beijr, of Columbia, wrestled 12 minutes to a draw.

195-pound class—Frantz, of Princeton, won a decision over Patterson, of